SAMUEL F. COLCORD,
EDMUND E. SMITH,
BENJAMIN F. LANG,

Selectmen of Candia.

REPORT OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

Agreeably to the requirements of the law, your committee submits the following report:

DISTRICT No. 1.

FRENCH SMITH, Prudential Committee.

Amount of money, $194.49. Money unexpended, none.

The school under the instruction of Mrs. Alice D. Smith made excellent progress, and fully sustained its previous reputation of being one of our best schools, and Mrs. Smith was just the teacher for the school. This school excels in reading, and ability to read well paves the way for success in other branches. The closing examinations were really entertainments.

DISTRICT No. 2.

HENRY T. EATON, Prudential Committee.

Amount of money, $186.71. Amount unexpended, none.

No. of terms three. Length of school, 29 weeks. Teacher for the three terms, Mrs. Julia A. Eaton.

In this district we have an illustration of the wisdom of uniting small districts. By uniting No. 14 with No. 2, there was a number sufficient for a good school and money enough for a long school, and with a sufficient number of scholars, many of them advanced in their studies, and with a thorough and experienced teacher there was an opportunity for the accomplishment of good results. The examinations were very satisfactory, both to the many visitors and to the committee.

DISTRICT No. 3.

ASA S. DUTTON, Prudential Committee.

Amount of money, $127.34. Money unexpended, $4.00.

No. of terms, three. Length of school, 20 weeks.

This school is very small, but has several brilliant scholars which helps to make up for want of numbers.

Miss Mary L. Brown taught the two first terms, doing a good honest work for her pupils. Miss Brown's excellent preparation for her work and her ripe experience and natural tact combine to make her a successful teacher. On account of sickness Miss B. was obliged to leave the school, which was finished by Miss Jennie A. Palmer, who is second to no one as a teacher. With such a class of scholars taught by good teachers, the results could not well fail of being satisfactory.

DISTRICT No. 4.

S. WENTWORTH, Prudential Committee.

Amount of money, $111.54 Money unexpended, none.

Terms of school, two. This is a very good school when properly governed. Miss Annie L. Morse of Chester taught the first term and the results were far from satisfactory. There was a grievous want of order, of system, and of enthusiasm.

The next term, taught by Miss Mary H. Batchelder of Deerfield, was a different thing. With her long experience and vigorous energy and gift of command the school was equal to any school in town. I think all of the large number present at the examination were more than satisfied with the appearance of the school.

DISTRICT No. 6.

JOHN G. CATE, Prudential Committee.

Amount of money $116.71. Money unexpended. $1.01.

Two terms of school taught by Miss Nellie M. Rich. This was her first experience in teaching, but we think it just to say that her work gave entire satisfaction to the district. Further remarks are withheld on account of her relation to the committee.

DISTRICT No. 7.

ARTHUR L. THORNE, Prudential Committee.

Amount of money, 72.27 Money unexpended, not reported.

Teacher for both terms, Miss Gertrude F. Moulton of Manchester, a graduate of the Manchester High School.

Her literary qualifications were a credit to the school from which she graduated, but as it was her first effort in teaching and as she was unacquainted with our methods, in country schools, her school was unsatisfactory for the first four weeks and caused some prejudice against her as a teacher, on the part of some parents, but she improved by experience and did very well in some of the classes. With more experience and more favorable circumstances Miss M. may hope for success in teaching.

DISTRICT No. 8.

FRANK CLAY, Prudential Committee.

Amount of money, $80.05. Money unexpended, $2 14.

The first term Miss Annie L. Dale of Chester taught giving very good satisfaction. The fall term was commenced by Mr. Harry Hall, who gave up the school for a better situation, and Miss Alice A. Watson completed the term. For one who had had but very little experience she did very well. Her government was firm, and her skill in imparting knowledge fair.

DISTRICT No. 9.

E. F. MALOON, Prudential Committee.

Amount of money, $148.43. Money unexpended, 62 cts.

Teacher for both terms, Miss Annie M. Noyes of Deerfield. Miss Noyes did fair work but was not adapted to such a school. A firm disciplinarian is needed in this school. She worked hard and the scholars learned very well. She got them to speak and read distinctly, which was a needed improvement. The school is small in numbers and the scholars rather backward, and the citizens are wanting in interest as manifested at the want of attendance at the examinations at the close of the terms.

It is to be hoped that something may be done under the incoming administration to improve this school.

DISTRICT No. 10.

JOSEPH COLCORD, Prudential Committee.

Amount of money, $87.41. Money unexpended, unreported.

This has been one of our best schools, but several of the older ones of past years are about done with attending town schools and their presence will be missed—indeed some of them were missed from the last year's schools.

The first teacher, Miss Hattie M. Brown of Deerfield, who brought to the school some experience in teaching, and a good amount of energy and tact made the school a success, and if she would secure a thorough education she would become one of the most successful teachers.

Miss Lucie A. Peabody, the second teacher, has had superior advantages for preparation for the work of the school room, and these literary acquirements enabled her to do good work for scholars in the more advanced classes; but her government was not up to the standard. This was her first effort in teaching, and there is an opportunity for improvement in the art of governing.

DISTRICT No. 11.

J. M. FRITS, Prudential Committee for the Candia portion of the District.

Amount of money, $79.91. Money unexpended, none.

This is the largest school in town, and made up of a very interesting class of pupils, well disposed and studious.

Mrs. M. J. Dolber taught both terms, and the results were a credit to even one of her long experience. At the closing examination much satisfaction was expressed by the many visitors. Her moral influence and interest in the spiritual well-being of her pupils was very pleasing.

DISTRICT No. 12.

JOHN H. NUTTING, Prudential Committee.

Amount of money, $62.74. Money unexpended, none.

One term, taught by Mrs. Mary E Nutting. In this school much patience is required, as some of the pupils are backward and slow to learn, and a teacher with the ambition of Mrs. N. would find it difficult to accomplish all that she might desire. As this school is so small some change should be made by which the scholars shall have the benefit of the inspiration that comes from the presence of numbers.

DISTRICT No. 13.

DAVID B. LANGLEY, Prudential Committee.

Amount of money, $70.01. Money unexpended, not reported. This school is so small that no great achievements could reasonably be expected. But we think the teachers both did as well as could be expected. Miss Lizzie E. Crane teacher of the first term, reports 6 scholars. Miss Carrie B. Rowe who taught the second term reports 3 scholars.

The new law will doubtless prove advantageous to the pupils of this part of the town, and from what we know of the enterprise of the people on Tower Hill we may expect that they will heartily co-operate in anything that may prove an advantage to the coming men and women.

Some interesting statistics gathered mostly from the report to the state :—

HIGH SCHOOL.

The Winter term was taught by Mr. Fred C. Potter. The present term is introduced by Mr. Henry Hubbard of this town. If some method could be devised by which the 45 pupils who have pursued the higher branches in the town schools could attend the high school it would be a step in the right direction.

While we may not expect perfection in any new law, we are most heartily in favor of the change in our school laws, and hope for improvements in our schools. Let us give it a fair trial.
